

Table 2: Acceptable Forms of Identification [notes follow]

1		2		3
Photo Identification		Social Security #		Citizenship/Legal Resident Status
Description: A valid US Government-issued photo identification		Description: A valid social security number from the Social Security Administration		Description: Proof of citizenship or legal resident status
A	B ¹	A	B ²	A	B ³
An original unexpired Government-issued photo ID card, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ CA State ID ▪ Out of State ID ▪ Passport ▪ Permanent Resident Card ▪ Work Visa ▪ Consular ID ▪ San Francisco City ID Card 	A photocopy of the original unexpired Government-issued photo ID card from Column A. OR An expired Government-issued photo ID card from Column A OR Alternative forms ⁴ of photo identification, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ CHANGES printout ▪ Jail ID AND Proof that the applicant has applied for a new ID.	An original Social Security card issued by the Social Security Administration.	A photocopy of the original Social Security card. OR Official documents with the client's full name and social security number included, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ DD214 ▪ proof of income printout from an official source ▪ SSA printout ▪ MEDS printout AND Proof that the applicant has applied for a Social Security card.	An original valid document, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ US Birth Certificate ▪ Official printout from SSA ▪ Form DD214⁵ ▪ Current permanent resident card ▪ Naturalization Certification 	A photocopy of an original document from Column A. OR An expired original document from Column A.

Notes: Table 2: Acceptable Forms of Identification
1	In circumstances where the client is unable to get a Government ID, documents from Column B may be accepted with proof that a document from Column A has been requested from the issuer. Client will be responsible for providing a document from Column A within six months of move-in.
2	If obtaining a social security card is not possible, documents from Column B may be accepted with proof that the client has requested a replacement card from the Social Security Administration. Client may be responsible for providing an original Social Security Card within six months of move-in.
3	In circumstances where the client is a US citizen/legal resident but is unable to get proof of citizenship from Column A, documents from Column B may be accepted with proof that a document from Column A has been requested from the issuer. Client will be responsible for providing a document from Column A within six months of move-in.
4	In circumstances where the client is unable to get a Government ID alternative forms of identification may be accepted. Alternative forms of identification can be accepted when all other options to obtain a US Government Issued ID have been exhausted.
5	Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty; for more information about verification and the veteran exemption, see Department of Justice, Interim Guidance on Verification of Citizenship, Qualified Alien Status and Eligibility Under Title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, 62 Fed. Reg. 61344, 61345 (Nov. 17, 1997)